Dear Don,

Ann passed on your message concerning your desire to have a fulsome response to your situation on or before December 15th. Please be assured that the information you have conveyed to both Ann and I has been provided to senior leadership. I do ask your indulgence in allowing additional time for senior leadership to realistically analyze the information you so thoroughly gathered for their use. I believe the result of their review and response will be available to share with you later in January. I wish you a very happy holiday and thank you for your consideration. With kind regards, I am

Respectfully yours,

Deb Collins
