Prior to his current position, he served as president of GM Asia Pacific and GM group vice president beginning in 2004, and GM group vice president of manufacturing and labor relations beginning in 2002. Previously, Clarke had been vice president of labor relations since January 2001. Clarke is a member of the board of directors of the Alliance of Automobile Manufacturers and a member of the University of Michigan Business School Visiting Council. He serves on the board of directors of the GM-Toyota NUMMI manufacturing joint venture in California.

Bill Powell
GMNA Vice President, Industry-Dealer Affairs

Powell assumed his current position in 2004. He began his career with GM in 1977 with Buick, eventually becoming a district manager in Los Angeles. Powell held several sales assignments at Buick and Motors Holding before becoming general manager of the Dealer Network Investment and Development Group in 1993. Prior to his current position, he was the general manager for GM's Southeast Region in Atlanta between 1999 and 2004. Powell received his bachelor's degree in education at Indiana University in 1969 and a master's degree from Pacific Lutheran University in 1975.

Michael Martin
GM Line Chairman of the NADA Industry Relations Committee

President of Dudley Martin Chevrolet, Manassas, Va., Martin represents that state's franchised new-car dealers on NADA's board of directors. He became a franchised dealer in 1954 and is currently on the association's Dealership Operations and Membership committees, as well as GM's Southeast region of the Industry Relations Committee. Martin is also a board member of the Virginia Automobile Dealers Association (VADA). Previously, he was chairman of the VADA, a board member of the Washington Area North Carolina Dealers and a member and co-chair of the Virginia Motor Vehicle Dealer Board. Active in the community, he is past chairman and board member of the Kiwanis of Bull Run.

John Middlebrook
GM Vice President, Global Sales, Service and Marketing Operations

Before taking on his current position in 2004, Middlebrook was GMNA vice president of Marketing and Advertising, a position he had held since 2000. Previously, he was general manager for Vehicle Brand Marketing for GM's North American Operations. Middlebrook began his GM career in 1959 with Oldsmobile, and has had many responsibilities throughout the corporation. Among his roles were VP in charge of Marketing for Saturn, VP in charge of Marketing and Product Planning for GM, and general manager for both Pontiac and Chevrolet. Middlebrook is also a former chairman of the Detroit Area Boy Scout Council board.

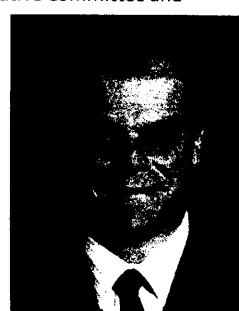

Barbara Stokel
GMAC Executive Vice President, North America Operations

Stokel was appointed to her current position in 2006, with responsibility for GMAC's U.S. and Canadian automotive financing operations and the company's Nuvel and Semperian subsidiaries. She had served as vice president of GMAC's Eastern Region in North America Operations since 2004, overseeing the performance of branches in 19 eastern states. Stokel began her GM career in 1974, first joining GMAC as assistant manager of the Plans Department in 1989, and subsequently progressing through various executive management positions in the company's executive office and regional and field offices.

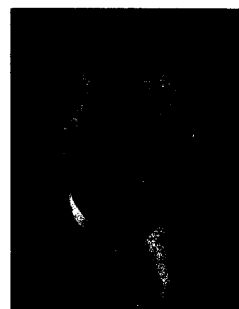

Rick Wagoner
GM Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Wagoner was elected GM chairman in 2003 and was president and CEO beginning in 2000. With GM since 1977, his prior roles at GM included serving as president of North American Operations (1994), executive vice president and CFO (1992-94), and vice president in charge of finance for General Motors Europe (1989-90), as well as holding positions with General Motors of Canada and GM do Brasil. Wagoner is a member of the boards of trustees of Duke University and Detroit Country Day School, the Board of Dean's Advisors of the Harvard Business School, and the Board of Directors of Catalyst. He is chairman of the Society of Automotive Engineers "A World In Motion" Executive Committee and a member of The Business Council and The Business Roundtable.
