Dear Mr. Bennett:

Thank you for your time yesterday, and for your genuine concern about the very disturbing history I have endured. I apologize for the delay in getting the attached documents to you, but yesterday was an extremely busy day for me.

Following is a list of the attachments, and notes regarding each one:

1. The three-page cover letter I sent to TIGTA, which was apparently omitted, at least partially, from what you received.
2. Text of an e-mail I sent to Cas Mar and his new Acting Manager Brian Maguire on August 18, 2010.
3. Cas Mar's final conclusion, referred to in my August 18 e-mail, prior to Brian Maguire's last minute override. Cas had called me on August 4 to tell me, in a dejected manner and tone, that Brian would not accept his conclusion supporting my deduction as I had originally filed it. During that conversation, we arranged a meeting with Brian Maguire and him on August 9. I called Cas back on August 5 and requested a copy of his final conclusion, which resulted in his faxing of this document. This 10-page documents begins with "Conclusion: (Reflects the final determination on this issue.)" Final, that is, until Brian Maguire replaced Mike Adams.
4. My August 26 letter to TIGTA, which I wrote after Cas and Brian missed the promised August 23 deadline and I did not get a return phone call from the August 23 voice mail I left for Cas. The letter was sent by U. S.

Postal Service Priority Mail on August 26, but was not delivered until September 9, which was after I had received the second final conclusion dated August 30. Following is the tracking history provided by the Postal

5. The final (final final) conclusion reflecting Brian Maguire's override of Cas Mar's conclusion after six months. In my strong opinion, the reasons stated therein for disallowance are totally illogical, a position I will support in my Protest and Appeal. Cas's first final, and well-researched, conclusion contained in attachment number 3 above provides good support for my position. I should note that when Cas, Mike Adams, and I met on March 19, 2010, Mike said that Cas would approach my claim as though he were doing the 2008 audit from scratch, without regard to Rob Hunt's conclusion. This fresh look seems to be a logical approach. Conversely, it appears to me that Brian's edict reflects a perceived obligation to pre-rule in favor of the government, then craft support for that position, and then leave it up to Appeals to deal with it if the taxpayer chooses to go forward.

In our telephone conversation yesterday, we discussed the Taxpayer Advocate.

As I mentioned, I have been in communication with Valerie Hill in Sacramento. The case number is 4715416. My discussions with her were about the 2008 Form 1045 filed on August 24, 2009. However, on August 24, 2010, I contacted her to request that she add the 2005 1040X issue to her case, as Cas and Brian didn't conclude it on August 23 as promised.

It is my understanding that you will be talking with Cas Mar and other involved personnel regarding the final conclusion on the 2005 Form 1040x claim, and will put it on hold while you review it. As you know, I plan to protest the conclusion and file for Appeal. I need to file this soon to be timely, but will wait until you and I talk again this week. Per your request, I will not contact Cas until after you and I talk again.

I appreciate your intervention into my 1040X and 1045 issues, and hope for a swift resolution. However, as I stated in the letter to TIGTA, the focus of that complaint is what I believe to be collusion between General Motors and the IRS. As General Motors in recent years aggressively and viciously destroyed virtually everything I have ever worked for, investigation into that apparent conspiracy is my primary concern.

It is my hope that your investigation will lead to justice that will restore my previous perception of fairness within the IRS, a perception that has been seriously eroded by the many unconscionable events that have occurred since 2005. Please feel free to contact me at any time to discuss any of the multitude of matters of concern.

Sincerely,
